Large or small groups indoor or out, one hour or whole day packages tailored to suit the client's needs.

A constant evolution of products and ideas makes Big Beat one of the foremost bespoke team building companies in the UK.

Big Beat is constantly evolving and adapting, creating new ideas and generating a unique buzz throughout the corporate sector. We have enjoyed rave reviews throughout the UK and are currently expanding into Europe.

“On behalf of everyone at Quadrant I just wanted to say a huge thank you to Big Beat for your help with organising the team exercise at our recent seminars. The session really hit the mark with the delegates and ended the day on an uplifting and fun note. We will certainly consider doing something similar at our next event.”
